UCC Category Description

This is a Discipline-specific Global Learning course that counts towards your FIU Global Learning graduation requirement.

University Core Curriculum

This course satisfies the following University Core Curriculum requirement for Social Science Group One (state-required):

Students will demonstrate the ability to examine behavioral, social, and cultural issues from a variety of points of view. Students will demonstrate an understanding of basic social and behavioral science concepts and principles used in the analysis of behavioral, social, and cultural issues, past and present, local and global.

It is supported by the following learning outcomes for the course:

Global Awareness: Students will be able to explain how globally diverse values, beliefs, and behaviors are influenced by social forces.

Global Perspective: Students will be able to examine social processes from diverse perspectives (e.g. conflict, functionalist, and symbolic interactionist approaches).

Global Engagement: Students will be able to propose solutions to a global problem taking into account multiple perspectives.

Student Learning Outcomes/Objectives

Student learning outcomes allow faculty to assess the level of proficiency in content knowledge and skills that their students acquire in a course.

If the objective meets a special designation, you will see the code after the objective:

University Core Curriculum: UCC

Gordon Rule Writing: GRW

Global Learning: GL

Civic Literacy: CL

- Understand the different anthropology subfields as well as their basic methods, theories, and applications.
- Develop cross-cultural awareness.

- Reflect on their own cultural background, worldview, and biases.
- Apply anthropological methods and theories to interpret and solve problems.

Expectations of the Course

This is an online course, meaning that all of the course work will be conducted online. Expectations for performance in an online course are the same as for a traditional course; in fact, online courses require a degree of self-motivation, self-discipline, and technology skills that can make them more demanding for some students.

Students are expected to:

- review the Getting Started module located in the course content;
- introduce yourself to the class during the first week by posting a self-introduction in the appropriate discussion forum;
- take the Syllabus Quiz (you need to take the Syllabus Quiz and receive a perfect score in order to gain access to all the modules, including discussions and exams, in the course);
- interact online with instructor and peers;
- review and follow the course calendar;
- check the course website 3-4 times per week for any updates and notification from the instructor or T.A.; and
- be open-minded and respectful of other students.

In general, each student is granted one assignment extension per term regardless of reason upon request. After this extension is granted, no further extensions will be granted regardless of reason unless documentation is provided through the Disability Resource Center.

The instructor will:

- log in to the course daily on business days;
- respond to emails/messages within 2 business days;
- grade assignments and provide feedback within 7 days of the assignment deadline.

Assignments

Individual Fieldwork

20 points each; 60 possible semester points

In Modules 1, 3, and 5, students will be required to complete a fieldwork task and complete a lab report. You will need to read the assigned chapter readings before completing the fieldwork. You can expect each fieldwork assignment to take approximately two hours to complete, so be sure not to leave it until an hour before the deadline.

Each assignment will have individual guidelines that students can review, but generally all assignments will be graded according to the following metrics:

- Relevance to assigned material: the ideas indicate that the student has read the assigned material and considered the questions.
- Clarity, coherence: the ideas are stated clearly and coherently.
- Critical thinking: there is evidence that the student has adequately analyzed, synthesized, and evaluated the assigned material.
- Spelling, grammar: the posting must meet university-level standards of spelling and grammar.

Fieldwork is due by Friday, 11:59 pm the week/module assigned unless otherwise indicated in the course syllabus/calendar. Field report forms / assignments will be available for the duration of each module.

Team-Based Learning

20 points each; 60 possible semester points

In Modules 2, 4, and 6, you will work with a few classmates to complete a fieldwork task. You will be graded INDIVIDUALLY for this team-based learning according to your own effort. The idea is to get practice working in teams, as anthropologists often do, while not being held accountable for the work of other group members. You will need to read the assigned chapter readings before completing the fieldwork.

Each assignment will have individual guidelines that students can review, but generally all assignments will be graded according to the following metrics:

- Relevance to assigned material: the ideas indicate that the student has read the assigned material and considered the questions.
- Clarity, coherence: the ideas are stated clearly and coherently.
- Critical thinking: there is evidence that the student has adequately analyzed, synthesized, and evaluated the assigned material.
- Spelling, grammar: the posting must meet university-level standards of spelling and grammar.

Fieldwork assignments are due by Friday, 11:59 pm the week/module assigned unless otherwise indicated in the course syllabus/calendar. Report forms/assignments will be available for the duration of each module.

Extra Credit and Make-Up Assignments

In general, each student is granted one assignment extension per term regardless of reason upon request. After this extension is granted, no further extensions will be granted regardless of reason unless documentation is provided through the Disability Resource Center.

Each module contains a 5-point opportunity for extra credit, such that a total of 30 extra credit points can be earned during the semester. Extra credit assignments in modules 1, 3, 4, and 5 have separate submission boxes and are due by the end of the term. Modules 2 and 6 have an extra credit opportunity built into the group fieldwork project and are due at the same time as the group fieldwork.

Assessments

Exams

In order to mitigate any issues with your computer and online assessments, it is very important that you take the practice quiz from each computer you will be using to take your graded quizzes and exams. Assessments in this course are not compatible with mobile devices and should not be taken through a mobile phone or a tablet. You need to receive a perfect score in order to gain access to all the modules, including discussions and exams, in the course.

Multiple-choice/true-false exams & final grade:

- 40 possible points each; 240 possible semester points
- The 6 exams will be based entirely on the textbook.
- Each exam will consist of multiple-choice questions; will cover the textbook's assigned readings; and will have 20 questions, worth 2 points each. Thus, each exam will count up to a possible 40 points. The exams will be available within the modules.

To prepare for each exam, FIRST READ EACH CHAPTER CAREFULLY. The following tips will also help you study.

- Emphasize broad concepts and examples of such concepts, rather than narrow facts.
- Look over and complete any other supplemental materials available in the modules.
- Don't forget that you are allowed to use all of your course materials on the quiz!
Make sure your book is open, and make use of the search feature. It will help you!

Unless otherwise indicated, exams will be available until Friday, 11:59 pm, at the end of each module.

Grading

Note: All required assignments must be completed to be eligible to earn a passing grade.

The graded assignments will be 6 multiple-choice/true-false exams (40 possible points each; 240 possible semester points), 3 individual fieldwork reports (20 possible points each; 60 possible semester points), 3 group fieldwork reports (20 possible points each; 60 possible semester points), and a Syllabus Quiz (10 possible points) adding up to 370 total possible semester points.

Final grades will be computed by the percentage of 370 total possible semester points earned.

A	333 - 370 (90+%)
B	296 - 332 (80-89%)
C	259- 295 (70-79%)
D	222 - 258 (60-69%)
F	221 or less (<60%)

Panther Book Pack

FIU has implemented the Panther Book Pack rental program, which provides your required print and digital course materials at a flat rate of $20 per undergraduate credit hour. When you registered for your classes this session, you were notified via email of the required course materials that are included in the Panther Book Pack. The Panther Book Pack program applies to all undergraduate credit hours per academic session. I recommend that you review the pricing for all materials across your classes this session compared to the Panther Book Pack flat rate. If the Panther Book Pack is not your best option, you may opt-out up to three days after the add/drop deadline. You may opt back into the Panther Book Pack up to three days after the add/drop deadline. If you do not opt out of the Panther Book Pack rental program, you will be charged $20 per credit hour and the course materials will be reserved for you for the undergraduate courses for which you are registered. For more details, visit onestop.fiu.edu/bookpack.

Course Communication

Communication in this course will take place within Canvas.

Policies

Please review the FIU's Policies webpage. The policies webpage contains essential information regarding guidelines relevant to all courses at FIU, as well as additional information about acceptable netiquette for online courses. For additional information, please visit FIU's Policy and Procedure Library.

As a member of the FIU community, you are expected to be knowledgeable about the behavioral expectations set forth in the FIU Student Conduct and Honor Code.

Technical Requirements and Skills

One of the greatest barriers to student success is a lack of basic computer literacy. By computer literacy, we mean being able to manage and organize computer files efficiently and learning to use your computer's operating system and software quickly and easily. Keep in mind that this is not a computer literacy course, but students enrolled in online courses are expected to have moderate proficiency in using a computer. Please go to the What's Required webpage to find out more information on this subject

Accessibility and Accommodation

The Disability Resource Center collaborates with students, faculty, staff, and community members to create diverse learning environments that are usable, equitable, inclusive, and sustainable. The DRC provides FIU students with disabilities the necessary support to successfully complete their education and participate in activities available to all students. If you have a diagnosed disability and plan to utilize academic accommodations, please contact the Center at 305-348-3532 or visit them at the Graham Center GC 190.

Academic Integrity

Florida International University is a community dedicated to generating and imparting knowledge through excellent teaching and research, the rigorous and respectful exchange of ideas, and community service. All students should respect the right of others to have an equitable opportunity to learn and honestly demonstrate the quality of their learning. Therefore, all students are expected to adhere to a standard of academic conduct, which demonstrates respect for themselves, their fellow students, and the educational mission of the University. All students are deemed by the University to understand that if they are found responsible for academic misconduct, they will be subject to the Academic Misconduct procedures and sanctions, as outlined in the Student Conduct and Honor Code.

Academic Misconduct includes:

Cheating

- The unauthorized use of any materials, information, study aids or assistance from another person on any academic assignment or exercise, unless explicitly authorized by the course Instructor;
- Assisting another student in the unauthorized use of any materials, information, study aids, unless explicitly authorized by the Instructor; and
- Having a substitute complete any academic assignment or completing an academic assignment for someone else, either paid or unpaid;

Plagiarism

- The deliberate use and appropriation of another's work without any indication of the source and the representation of such work as the Student's own.
- Assisting another student in the deliberate use and appropriation of another's work without any indication of the source and the representation of such work as the student's own.

Panthers Care & Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS)

If you are looking for help for yourself or a fellow classmate, Panthers Care encourages you to express any concerns you may come across as it relates to any personal behavior concerns or worries you have, for the classmate's well-being or yours; you are encouraged to share your concerns with FIU's Panthers Care website.

Counseling and Psychological Services \(CAPS\) offers free and confidential help for anxiety, depression, stress, and other concerns that life brings. Professional counselors are available for same-day appointments. Don't wait to call (305) 348-2277 to set up a time to talk or visit the online self-help portal.

Core Principles of this Course

This course will serve to embrace the diversity and inclusivity found within Florida International University. We appreciate and respect diversity, equality, equity, cooperativeness, community, and sustainability within our online courses. We are committed to the ongoing education of our students and their participation within the course regardless of gender, ethnicity, age, sexual orientation, geographical location, religion, and disability. We strive in encouraging collaboration by preparing our students to value the differences in others. At the core of our intentions is the encouragement of acceptance and appreciation of differences within our student population and community.

State General Education Course Description and Outcomes

This course aligns with the state-mandated course description and student learning outcomes specified below.

ANT 2000 - Introduction to Anthropology

In this course, students will learn the foundations of anthropology as the study of human variation in its biological, social, and cultural dimensions. Students will learn about anthropological concepts, principles, and methodologies to understand and explore past and present human behavior. They will apply the anthropological approach to analyze issues pertaining to past and contemporary cultures, and develop intellectual skills and habits to understand behavioral, social, and cultural issues from multiple disciplinary perspectives.

Student learning outcomes:

- Students will explain scientific approaches to the study of human variation and human origins, including primatology, extinct and extant human cultures, language, and ethnicity. Students will explain the origins of anthropology as a foundation discipline in the social sciences that examines the nature and definition of culture.
- Students will apply anthropological concepts, principles, and methods to the scientific study of past and present human behavior.
- Students will explain how anthropology incorporates multidisciplinary knowledge and perspectives.
- Students will describe contemporary anthropological contributions.
